Another Red Deer Hero Gives Life for Country

Mr. and Mrs. James Bower, sr., received the sad message by wire on Wednesday, from Ottawa, that their first son Arthur had succumbed to wounds at the front. The message was:

"Ottawa, July 11, via Vancouver, July 12.
J. Bower, Red Deer.

Deeply regret information you 500172 Sapper William Arthur Bower, Engineer, officially reported died of wounds June 29."

The sympathy of many friends will go out to Mrs. Bower in their great loss. Arthur worked for some years in engineering and surveying and ended at Vancouver with the 6th British Columbia Engineers. He has been engaged on a long writing tour. He was a clever worker, and a bright young man, and he will be much missed by those who knew him.

Ten Submarines From Canada Crossed Sea

London Newspapers Comment on Voyage of Deutschland—Craft is Not Trader But Merely Ordinary U-Boat With Fighting Equipment Removed.

London, July 11.—The morning newspapers, while expressing admiration editorially for the feat of the German submarine Deutschland, insist that it cannot have the slightest military importance, nor can it be regarded as a demonstration of the ineffectiveness of the British blockade.

The Daily News says: "The captain and the crew deserve congratulations on their pluck and luck. But all the voyage proved is that things can be done and that has been proved before. As far as the war is concerned it is quite unimportant."

The Morning Telegraph says: "The voyage is interesting as an illustration of the success with which physical science is triumphing over obstacles in the way of submarine navigation, but it is unimportant."

TERMS FAIR AMUSING

The Daily Express says: "The achievement cannot have the smallest military significance, but it is an interesting and amusing event, it is possible that the submarine may reach America but disaster would occur to most of them before they could get to the west coast of the United States."

The Morning Post recalls the fact that ten British submarines, constructed in Canada, crossed the Atlantic last summer. The paper gives an official Admiralty report on its authority for this. It adds: "It is not the case of this being the first 'trader submarine' to cross the Atlantic, but it is known that she is merely an ordinary U-boat with her fighting equipment removed."

NOT A TRADER CRAFT

"It does not appear a new era for the submarine as a trader. The small amount of cargo carried, compared with the cost of the voyage, proves it from being a commercial proposition. England commands the sea routes and while the trade ships of Germany have had to crawl under the sea, it is the latest demonstration possible of the efficiency of our blockade."

The Daily Graphic says: "While the submarine type does credit to German enterprise and seamanship, it leaves the maritime situation where it was before. The risk of disaster is immense and the capacity of submarines to carry commodities which Germany needs is insignificant."

The Daily Express asserts that if a dozen German submarines were to read the shipping news, they would find it was before. The risk of disaster is immense and the capacity of submarines to carry commodities which Germany needs is insignificant."

COMPLICATIONS UNLIKELY

Washington, July 11.—No diplomatic complications were seen by Federal officials to-day in the arrival at Baltimore of the German super-submarine Deutschland, if examination establishes the vessel is a merchantman and nothing else. A ruling on the craft's status will be made when the report coming from Collector of Customs Ryan at Baltimore is gone over, probably within 36 hours.

There were no prospects to-day that representatives here of the Allied Governments would protest if the submarine is held to be a merchant ship. Embassies have asked the State Department to satisfy itself of the vessel's character, but no protest against that boat's entrance into American waters was made.

Navy officers have been detailed to assist the Baltimore collector in examining the submarine. Official put little faith in rumors that the vessel might be objectionable to a close inspection of the boat on the ground that it was of a secret type of construction.

W. W. Nasmyth, of 89th, Appointed Brig-General

Commander of Alberta Battalion, and St. Julien, Veteran, Is Promoted

That Lieutenant-Col. W. W. Nasmyth, former commander of the 89th battalion, has been promoted to the rank of brigadier-general and has crossed to France in command of a division of some 20,000 men, is the report which has come from England within the past few days.

Before Col. Nasmyth left Calgary The Telegram announced that he had been offered such an appointment, but that he had refused it until such time as he went to England. Of late officers' wives writing to friends have stated that the anticipated event had come to pass, and now leading officers of the 18th, who were formerly in the 89th, have learned that Brigadier-General Nasmyth is already at the front commanding either the third or fourth Canadian division.

If this report is correct, and there is every reason to believe that it is no honors conferred in this war have been better deserved. A veteran of the South African war, W. W. Nasmyth at once relinquished his practice as a doctor in Youngstown when the European war broke out, and unhesitatingly offered his services. With a first contingent he left this province, and at Valenciennes he was given his majority and placed in command of a battalion which afterwards became known as the "Fighting Tenth."

During the charge at St. Julien, where his brother, a lieutenant in the Duke of Devonshire's was killed, Major Nasmyth was shot through the lung, but refused to allow himself to be carried from the field. On being invalided back to Calgary, he was placed on the staff of the commandant at the Salcey last summer, until in the fall he was given command of the 89th battalion. This unit wintered in Red Deer all winter, and about six weeks ago left for the front.

KING AND QUEEN TO TOUR CANADA

London, July 17.—The determination of the King to make a tour of Canada, with the Queen, is the probable sequel of the appointment of the Duke of Devonshire as Governor-General of the Dominion, according to the Manchester Guardian. The Duchess of Devonshire is mistress of the Queen's Chamber, and one of her intimates in the court.

ROMANIA'S HOUR HAS STRUCK, SAYS JONESCU

Bucharest, July 15.—"Victory for the allies is now apparent to everybody," said Take Jonescu, leader of the Liberal party in Roumania, and former minister of the interior. "One can see it here by the deep discouragement of the pro-Germans. I know some important pro-Germans who declare that if the Russians arrive at Lemberg, Roumania must immediately enter the war against the central powers. I do not state this as a proof of moral perfection, but as evidence that victory for the allies is plain for all to see."

Pleasant Social Affair

A very pleasant social affair in the shape of a state party took place at the residence of Mr. E. M. The table decorations were exceedingly dainty and with the pretty costumes of the guests made a charming scene.

Depression Is Fading Rapidly, Declares Bury

Crop Prospects Now Ahead of 1915, Though Acreage Is Smaller

Winnipeg, July 12.—George Bury, vice president of the Canadian Pacific railway, said for the first time this morning, after an extended trip through the west, before leaving for the east, a few impressions gained during the trip. "I have been putting together reports from our officials, numerous agents and several hundred farmer correspondents; I have talked with farmers, business men, and others throughout the west, and can come to only one conclusion, the crop prospects at the present time are of the best, but it is too early for a prediction as to the yield. One thing, however, I will say," continued the vice president, "comparing last year with this year, the crop prospects are better today than at this time last year. True, there is not so much acreage sown, and it is almost impossible to get the acreage accurately, the estimate decrease varying from six per cent. to twenty per cent. But even with a decrease varying from six per cent. to twenty per cent., conditions generally are more healthy in the west than they were one year ago. Apparently more land is being broken and summer fallow. Couple that with the same old optimistic spirit that made the west what it is, and one finds a combination which is quickly dissolving the depression that did exist."

"The only thing we need now is more people on the land, and I predict with a good crop this year we will see a great influx of farmers from the south. After the war the eyes of people of countries now torn by conflict will turn toward this country and we will then see immigrants coming in great numbers."

Asked regarding the meeting of railway officials to be held in Winnipeg next week, Mr. Bury said that the officials from all branches of the service will meet to discuss ways and means to hold the confidence of people, to improve the service and secure greater efficiency. "Besides," he added, "if the officers of the east and west are thrown together more they will become better acquainted, and thus, at least so far as the railway is concerned, obliterate the imaginary line between the east and the west."

Ridgewood

The first annual Sunday School Picnic was held on the school grounds at Ridgewood. The weather was all that could be desired and a large number were in attendance. After games and races for old and young, a picnic lunch was served under the able captaincy of Mrs. Angus Martin. Tea was served on the lawn. The prizes were distributed and everyone departed for home eagerly looking forward to the picnic next year.

Miss Marjorie Martin, who has recently undergone an operation for appendicitis in the Memorial Hospital, Red Deer, has returned home. We are glad to have her smiling face with us once more.

Hogs. Hogs sold throughout the entire week at $10.25, and packers' bids have taken a lot more hogs than were offered (Price this week a year ago $8.50).

Cattle. Some choice steers brought $7.25, although $7.00 was the price paid for average good cattle. We are afraid the $7.25 steers will bring heavy receipts again, and as the demand is only limited, the price is sure to break with a heavy run. The Winnipeg and Eastern markets all report lower prices this week. (This week a year ago top steers $7.00.)

Sheep. We handled a car of excellent sheep from Crossfield for $8.65, and sold other sheep of the half fat class at from $8.00 to $8.25. The price on mutton has been reduced, and the demand is not so good as it was before. (This week a year ago top steers $7.00.)

Ask For Business

ONLY one's intimate friends go to one's home uninvited, and the extent of one's calling list is determined by the number of one's calls.

In business the same facts hold. Every merchant in Red Deer knows scores of families here and in the country round about, whose custom he does not possess.

Mutual acquaintance is the first step towards getting these families as customers; and acquaintances can most surely be developed by invitations or calls made through the medium of advertisements in the Weekly News.

TO THE MERCHANTS OF RED DEER

Show your desire for business by asking for it. A merchant who does not ask for business is supposed not to want business very keenly.

NORMAN MCARTHUR DIED HERO'S DEATH

Alberta University Student's Noble Record

How Private Norman McArthur died a hero's death on the battlefield in the recent heavy engagement near Ypres, is described in a letter from his old 'varsity' chum, Corporal F. Philip Galbraith, son of Alderman Galbraith of Red Deer, to Gordon McArthur of Coronation.

He writes: "I am very sorry to have to inform you of the death of your brother who was killed in action on June 2. On the morning of June 2 the enemy commenced a very heavy bombardment of our trenches which lasted about five hours. About 2 o'clock, our company was in support at the time, but we were ordered out to occupy a portion of our second line trenches. The enemy had in the meantime taken a portion of our front line. Norman was leading our platoon and had just reached a junction in the trench when he fell shot through the body, dying instantly."

"We all feel his loss very keenly as he was well liked by everyone. We suffered heavy losses in that particular engagement. Corporal Ernie Parsons was killed, Sergeant Roy Stevens and Corporal Alex McQueen were wounded."

IN UNIVERSITY CORPS

The late Private McArthur was a member of a university detachment which left Edmonton in May, 1915. He was a student in third year Arts at the University of Alberta and was held in high esteem by all his comrades. He is the second son of the late Duncan McArthur, one of the pioneers of the west, who died in Edmonton last February.

Private McArthur was only 24 years of age and was born in Calgary. He was a nephew of Mrs. M. McInnis of 1735 College Lane.

A RUGBY PLAYER

Corporal Ernie Parsons, mentioned in the letter, was also a student at the University of Alberta and played rugby with the green and gold when they captured the Alberta championship in 1914. He was also an enthusiastic hockey player and one of the most popular students at varsity. Sergeant Roy Stevens and Corporal Alex McQueen have since died of their wounds in the hospital. Sergeant Stevens was one of the most brilliant students in the university and was also the star of the 'varsity' basketball team in 1914 when they tied with the Calgary collegiate for the provincial honors.

"Stevy" as he was better known to his many friends, left with the same detachment as Private McArthur under Lieutenant Stanley Fife, who has been reported killed in action.

DR. McQUEEN'S SON

Corp. McQueen was a son of the Rev. Dr. McQueen, a well known clergyman in the northern capital. He was seriously wounded in the engagement described by Corporal Galbraith and passed away in the hospital. Corp. McQueen was in his third year at the University detachment and was always considered a capable and efficient student. Since his arrival in the trenches Corp. McQueen has been mentioned on numerous occasions for deeds of exceptional bravery and gallantry while under fire.

Methodist W.M.S. Report

We have pleasure in reporting an excellent year in W.M.S. work. During the year three executive and twelve regular meetings were held, with an average attendance of sixteen. Not least in interest were the meetings held during the vacation months.

Total monies raised $169, 800 of which is devoted to the maintenance of our Bible work in China. This year spells the third along this particular line of work.

The educational phase of our work has been largely augmented by the use of the year's study book, "The King's Highway." In this and all the other departments, the members have manifested a sustained interest, and enthusiasm. Though the work of the W. M. S. is carried on chiefly in the "foreign field," the locally organized department of "Mercy and Help" devotes its energies to immediate "home" need, and also with one or more of our Indian Reserves, as need arises. In this way, we strive to obey the command—

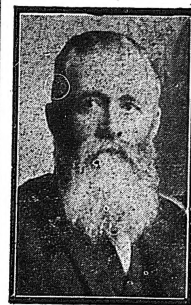

"Leave the whole lump, Break not from off thy life A piece for Heaven: But pour the soul of service In for heaven."

And raise it all. This year—with societies generally—Red Cross work has been assiduously carried on.

A very pleasurable innovation in the ordinary routine was an entertainment given by the mission band, assisted by members of the W.M.S. which brought forth, much unexpected talent, long "rolled up," and "laid away." The proceeds of this entertainment were generously donated by the band, to the Bible woman fund.

Mention might be made of the good work done by the visiting committee visible results of which have not been lacking. And so, though as a Society, we deeply realize, that the Great Artist, looking with other eyes at the completed sketch, might well write across it "Amplify," yet in retrospect we thankfully say: "I have touched with rose light, the life of one man or woman: I have worked with God."

While looking forward into the future, we humbly ask:— "Lord if I may, I'll serve another year."

REV. DR. JOHN McDOUGALL, the pioneer missionary of Calgary, who has accepted the position of liquor vendor for Calgary to drugists and others permitted to receive it under the Alberta Prohibition Act, coming into force July 1st.

Alberta Pays Up Well

Detailed Statement of Receipts by Constituencies Toward the Canadian Patriotic Fund

Province Is Very Little Short of Half Million Dollar Mark With Two Months of the Year Still to Run.

The following statement of receipts in this Province to the Patriotic Fund account for the last ten months will be read with interest by all who have this great national cause at heart. As is well known, the amount required from the Province was allotted to the various constituencies last year, having regard to their population and ability to pay. As will be seen from the statement below, several of the constituencies have passed into the honor roll by contributing more than was asked of them. Notable among these are: Didsbury, which passed the required mark by almost $4,000.00; High River by almost $3,000.00; Lethbridge by more than $15,000.00; Red Deer by $1,000.00; Rocky Mountain by over $13,000.00; Taber by almost $4,000.00; Camrose by $11,000.00; Sedgewick by $1,000.00 and Victoria by $3,000.00.

On the other hand, it is to be noted with regret that some have fallen considerably short of their allotment and there is one in the unenviable position of having given nothing whatever.

FREE TRADE HOTBED HEARS SIR GEORGE FOSTER

Meeting Was Arranged Jointly by Both Liberals and Conservatives.

London, July 13.—Manchester gave a warm welcome to Sir George Foster, who was the principal speaker at a great meeting last night, his subject being "Empire Trade." The meeting, held under the chairmanship of Lord Derby, had a special significance being held in the historic Free Trade hall, famous in the annals of the northern city as the platform where such men as John Bright and others of the Manchester school of politicians had expounded their principles. The meeting was arranged jointly by the Conservative and Liberal organizations, indicating the truth of Sir George Foster's statement that many prejudices had been burnt away and much ignorance dispelled by the heat of war.

In a fluent oration, which was punctuated by lively applause, Canada's minister of trade and commerce declared himself nonplussed by Germany's fatal error in resorting to the use of rifles and the bayonets when its method of "peaceful penetration" had attained such success. The method of procedure in future must be that the Allies should make better arrangements for themselves than they made for outside countries or neutrals. As to the Germans, he would bar them out until they repented in sackcloth and ashes, with a long period of repentance.

Patriotic Fund

The following resolutions were passed at a conference of the North Alberta and South Alberta Branches of the Fund held at Edmonton on July 14th, 1916.

- (1) Resolved that all childless wives, who are young and strong, married before enlistment, and who have not maintained a home prior to enlistment, and where they have complied with the requirements of the Fund, that is, in need of assistance, be given an allowance of $5 a month; other childless wives not to exceed $10 a month.
- (2) Resolved that no post enlistment wives be assisted until the wife is an expectant mother, that while an expectant mother she be treated as a childless wife married before enlistment and when the child is born she be treated as a mother married before enlistment.
- (3) Resolved that women whose domestic duties do not require their attention should be encouraged to work, and that no deduction be made on account of casual earnings, but when such employment is permanent and the earnings amount to more than what the allowance from the Fund would be, no assistance should be given.
- (4) Resolved that no steps should be taken regarding payment of pre-enlistment debts and that unless post enlistment debts are discharged after reasonable notice, the name of the dependent be removed from the roll.
- (5) Resolved that in case of discharged or transferred soldiers, the names of the dependents shall be removed from the roll, unless the reasons advanced are satisfactory to the Committee.

The meeting was well attended and the business of the Patriotic Fund past and future was closely discussed and plans laid for the next year's work. It was decided to continue the plan of raising money by voluntary subscriptions and the sum of $750,000 is to be raised. This is only about one half of what will be required to pay out to soldiers' families; the balance will be provided from monies raised in the Eastern Provinces. About 450 families are now being assisted in Alberta and about 60,000 throughout the Dominion.

It is expected that by the end of the present fiscal year—31st August—Red Deer will have raised $10,000. During the year to follow it is probable that this rising will be expected to raise $15,000. There are now 79 soldiers' wives on the Red Deer list, and new applications are being received every week.

Germans Lose Two of Latest Dreadnoughts

Washington, July 13.—An admiralty cablegram to the British embassy here says positive proof has been found that the two great German dreadnoughts, Kaiser and Kronprinz were sunk by torpedoes during the battle off Jutland and that they now have been added to the British official list of German ships destroyed.

The Kaiser was of 24,700 tons displacement and carried ten 12-inch, and 50 calibre guns. The Kronprinz carried ten 12-inch, and 45 calibre guns. She displaced 25,575 tons.

THE NORTH PERTH ELECTION

Down East, in the county of North Perth, Ont., they held an election on Monday, July 10th for the Ontario Legislature. The Conservative candidate, who was a farmer by the way, and a temperance man, was badly defeated.

The Liberals played the game in their usual way and they are shouting with glee throughout the width and breadth of the land at what they call their great victory.

North Perth is not a Conservative hive as has been falsely stated by Liberals because it has elected Liberals four times to the Dominion house and was represented by a Liberal for many years in the Ontario government.

There were just two prominent factors responsible for the big Liberal majority in North Perth and these were:

The retail sale of intoxicants will cease in Ontario on September 16th and a measure of prohibition will be submitted to the people so soon as the war is over, and the liquor interests fought tooth and nail against the government on this issue and the vote proves every temperance Liberal in the constituency voted with them to crash this temperance movement.

The other is that North Perth has a large German vote and they were secretly urged to vote against the Conservatives, and they did so, not only because they wished to crush this loyal government, but because they also were against prohibition.

And it is said to the everlasting shame of the Liberals of North Perth that they worked hand and glove with these people and succeeded in gaining a seat for their party, at what cost to themselves we will leave our readers to judge.

EXCURSION TO THE FARM

The annual farmers' excursion to the Lacombe Experimental Station, will be held on July 21st, this year. Special excursion trains are being run on all railway lines tributary to Lacombe. The farm is in splendid shape for the visitors, extensive experimental work with live stock, field husbandry, cereals, and poultry, being under way. All interested in agriculture are invited to spend a day at the Farm, and all arrangements are being completed for their entertainment. Those who desire to bring lunch baskets may secure hot water on the grounds for the making of tea and coffee, while the ladies of the Lacombe Branch of the Red Cross Society will serve refreshments. Addresses will be delivered by Mr. Angus McKay, of Indian Head, Inspector of Western Experimental Farms, and other prominent agriculturists.

LIBERALS CHY FOR MORE PROTECTION

(Calgary News-Telegram) The Calgary free trade, anti-government organ asserts that if the Canadian government had done its duty there would have been no Canadian nickel on the wharf at Baltimore for the German submarine. But, if the Canadian government had done its alleged duty—which, we admit, should have been done—would not an export or some other kind of a prohibitive or protective duty have nullified the free trade feelings of our contemporary? Germany was grabbing off Canadian nickel long before the war commenced, in preparation for "The Day." And the policy of the Calgary paper has always been to throw down the barriers and permit Germany and every other country to grab it off—just as the free trade policy of Britain permitted Germany to grab off and monopolize many other commodities that Britain should have controlled. That same submarine brought over to the U.S., it is said, a load of German dyes, which industry was killed in Britain by the same Germany that for years has been gobbling our nickel, using it for manufacturing purposes, and dumping it back into Britain. The entire wheat crop of Western Canada might also have been grabbed up by German agents in the U.S., as the nickel apparently has been, if the free trade Albertans and their friends had had their way. (Canada has undoubtedly made a mistake in connection with its great nickel wealth; but, if so, it is not the only nation that has given Germany too much access to its markets.)

Government Bulletin on Timothy Seed Production

The Alberta Department of Agriculture has coming off the press and available for immediate distribution, a bulletin on timothy seed production in Alberta. Last year about ten tons of Alberta timothy seed went into the Eastern market and the superiority of the Alberta kernel is as evident in the case of the timothy as it has been in the case of Marquis wheat and Banner oats.

The bulletin is quite timely. It deals with the market conditions and gives directions with regard to production and marketing. About 400,000 bushels, or two-thirds of the supply of timothy seed used in Canada comes from the United States, being produced on high-priced land and paying a 17 1/2 per cent war duty. It is easily seen at what an advantage the Canadian, and particularly the Western seed partner and marketing government, by which cleaning machinery will be installed at central elevators by the Dominion Government, and the Provincial Government will furnish inspectors who will make it their business to maintain the standard of the outgoing Alberta product. The Department of Agriculture will give all assistance possible in promoting trading between producers and dealers. All enquiries should be directed to the Seed and Weed Branch, Department of Agriculture, Edmonton.

The bulletin has been prepared by Deputy Minister H. A. Craig.

Jutland Battle Seems to Have Been Some Sort of An Affair

London, July 15—The Daily News Amsterdam correspondent learns that of the German warships engaged in the Jutland battle, four dreadnoughts—the Konig, Grosser Kurfurst, Markgraf and Kaiserin; four battle-cruisers—the Derfflinger, Seydlitz, Moltke and Von der Tann; two older battleships—the Hessen and Rheinland; and four small cruisers are now in German shipyards undergoing repairs.

The Seydlitz, he says, which had all her superstructure blown away, sank in shallow water while towed to harbor, but has since been salvaged. The other ships were severely damaged.

City Council Meeting

The regular meeting of the City Council was held Thursday evening last with His Worship Mayor Carswell in the chair and Aldermen Johnson, Smith, Collison and Galbraith present.

A. J. Russell addressed the Council asking for rebate of his license or business tax. He explained that he had been taxed as a business place, and again taxed for a restaurant. He contended his was not a restaurant.

Commissioner Stephenson pointed out he kept open on Sunday and must have a restaurant otherwise he was breaking the law.

Mr. Russell was given some time to think the question over and the matter was referred to the Commissioners. Mr. Russell will probably keep his store closed on Sunday.

Messrs. E. Michener and Jos. Wallace addressed the Council re matters relating to the Alberta Ladies' College.

Moved by Ald. Lord and Galbraith that the tender of the Dunlop Tire & Rubber Co. for 250 feet of fire hose be accepted and that 250 feet be purchased at $1.00 per foot, the quality required to be as submitted in the Imperial Hose.

Moved by amendment by Ald. Collison and Smith, that as Chief Moore was not in a position to report on the two samples of hose which were submitted, knowing nothing of the kind offered by the Gutta Percha Company, and as the hose now in use by the city is almost, if not all, of the Gutta Percha Company's make, and as their hose has been entirely satisfactory to the city, we purchase the hose of that brand by the Gutta Percha Company at $1 per foot.

The Mayor explained that he knew of no one that knew more about hose than Chief Moore, and Chief Taylor was also well informed. Both gentlemen favored the Dunlop Hose and the Commissioners were satisfied with that brand.

The amendment was lost.

The original motion was then put and carried.

CORRESPONDENCE

The Secretary of the Village of North Red Deer, wrote re misamoung of the Commissioners' report. Moved by Aldermen Galbraith and Johnson that the Commissioners' report be adopted with the exception that Clause 3 be not concerned in, and that Clause 4 be amended by the Council so that instead of the engineer being asked to prepare a report that the Council and Commissioners be asked to prepare a report, a body, and that the Engineer be asked to meet with them. Carried.

MARKET COMMITTEE REPORT

Ald. Collison on behalf of the Market Committee reported that the committee had been at the market Thursday morning and the place was locked up and not a person in attendance.

The committee, therefore, recommended that the market be closed for the months of July, August and September and that the market be opened the first Thursday in October.

The reported was adopted.

Moved by Aldermen Galbraith and Collison that this Council express its sincere regret at losing Ald. Bottrell from the Council, even though he withdrew to do the greater duty to King and Country in the war. Ex. Mayor Bottrell was the dean of the Council, his length of service far surpassing that of any member of the Council, past or present, which gave him an experience and a knowledge of city matters which was invaluable in Council discussions that found him ever alert and aggressive in all projects which might advance the interests of the city, never afraid to stand by his opinions, nor did he ever spare himself in public service in almost every public body of city and district and in many of the social and fraternal organizations of the city. His untimely death is a great loss and his untimely death is a great loss.

The Council would express its deep appreciation of the great sacrifice of Ald. Bottrell in public service, and business man of wide interests, a volunteer to serve in the 18th Overseas Battalion and would express the highest hope that he may come home to Red Deer and place his services and ability again at the disposal of the people whom he has served so faithfully and so well.

Ald. Collison took great pleasure in seconding the motion. He had the honor of first nominating Ald. Bottrell to the Council and he was proud of his record.

The Mayor regretted very much the loss of Ald. Bottrell, but commended the stand he had taken in joining the King's forces and expressed the hope that he would be spared to take his seat at the Council board.

The motion was then carried unanimously.

Council adjourned.

FOREST FIRE IS STILL RAGING

Paris, July 15.—The fire which destroyed the summer residence of King Constantine of Greece, situated at Tatoi, on the outskirts of Athens is still raging in the forest in which the royal chateau stood. A Haval scout from Athens says it is feared the flames will reach the city.

Among those who lost their lives in the fire were Colonel de la Parra, of the Engineers; M. Christospatitis, the head of the royal secret service, and 20 soldiers. Fifty soldiers were injured while engaged in rescue work.

As we see it this is one of the great Hall Storm years. We are expecting disastrous storms in July. These great storms are expected to include destructive hail storms, and farmers should insure against hail. These hail storms are close kin to tornadoes and thunderstorms.

Storms are 1,000 to 2,000 miles in diameter and our efforts are to locate their central parts. This storm will affect the whole continent and reach into the Mexican Gulf.

Letters from the Front

Mrs. E. W. Bjorkeland received the following letter from her son who was wounded at the front in June—

Dear Mother—
I am in England. We arrived here a few days ago, after being in a hospital in France for three weeks. I had three pieces of shrapnel taken out of my head, it is all healed up now. My chest will soon be alright too. I was up for a few minutes yesterday for the first time, but the doctor says it will be months before I can go back to France. I had a few ribs broken, and there is a piece of shrapnel in my right lung, it will have to stay there. I was first wounded in the chest. We were getting ready to make a counter attack about 12 p.m., the Germans were shelling us all the time. I got into a trench and started for a dressing station. It was about two miles away. I got a hundred yards and was hit in the leg just over the right temple, stayed there a little while and started again, then a shell came in the trench. I did not get wounded but I think that was the one that broke my ribs. I got to the dressing station alright, was just hit twice.

We had been at Ypres for three months, and that was where we were fighting. We had some very exciting times and got into a few tight corners. I do not know how the rest of the regiment is, but I am afraid they got cut up pretty badly. A. BJORKELAND

The following letter from Pte. Jack Hix is the family (he should say his ancestors) were all a great bunch of fighters. His father, grandfather, and great grandfather were in the Indian mutiny, in the Crimean war, in the Napoleonic wars, etc. He has one huge painting, about 20 feet high, showing the storming of San Sebastian in the Peninsula war, and he can show his ancestor in the attacking columns. Some of his ancestors also fought for Prince Charlie and he has a writing set, very small and very nice, presented by the Prince to his ancestor the night before Culloden. General Leith-Hay was in the battle of Waterloo and on account of some courtesy shown to a French Courtier was presented with the sash—very interesting, etc. He has also some splendid jewelry and gold trinkets which were taken from the Palace of the King and Queen of Oude in India. He has swords and lances and other equipment taken from officers of the Russian Army in the Crimea, also of course, the claymore of his father and grandfather, and their tarzan or whatever you call it.

There is some beautiful furniture too, with some great four-poster beds with covers over them. I don't know how thick the carpets are in some of the rooms, but they are certainly jake to walk on. Fine old

When we first got up to the position we were to hold, it was an old trench half way up to our knees in mud, and we were told to dig our selves in, which we did and very glad we were of that trench when Fritz let loose his artillery for it sounded as if hell were let loose. We got down as low as we could while the heavy shelling was going on. The noise is dreadful, thunder is not it. Then the big shells began to come and you think it is the end. Then sometimes mud and a sandbag will drop on your back, and a piece of shell will hit your leg. Once a big shell dropped very close and I felt the concussion, then everything was black with choking clouds of dirt and smoke.

This kind of thing would last for two hours and then cool off for a while and all the time we were sitting or crouching in the hole which we had dug. We only had about two days of it but that was enough, we were glad to be able to stretch our legs again. We sure had a lively time for a while.

They attacked our front trench and took it and then, of course, they had to be driven back, and we were the ones who had to help do it and the boys sure did their part.

I could write sheets about it, but I am afraid you must wait until I get home. With love to all.

Arthur Carswell writing from Aberdeen Scotland, says: I don't think Phil Galbraith was hurt but I am not sure. Out of the six other fellows who left Edmonton with me three were killed, two were wounded and another one and myself were wounded before the big scrap.

A hospital just behind the line, in Maple Copse, was pounded to the ground and the grove itself just about obliterated. Our brigade drove the Hoeses out of a line after they had captured it. One wounded man was telling me he saw where some of the troops had fought with bare hands after their weapons were broken or useless. One of our bunch and a German were choking each other and both were dead. Such things are not very nice to talk about, but I just mention it to give you some idea. A wall called the China wall had been built across an open space behind our lines to protect troops coming along. It was almost completely leveled and dead men lay along its whole length. They can certainly drop shells pretty accurately these days. After they had secured our front line though our artillery gave them just as much and they certainly never gained anything. Several of our 12 inch guns were in action there, and the shells sound like express trains when they are going over. They stir things up when they light alright. When the whole front line was finally taken back a gain there was a nice mixture of dead Canadians and Germans.

And then to see the poor fellows afterwards, that are badly hit but not killed. And hear them hollering when the wounds are dressed or amputations are taking place. It is rather horrible. I see no reason for it being over, but many seem to think it will be over in a month or so. They say they don't see how it can go another winter. I don't see why not.

Leith Hall, Kennethworth

Aberdeenshire, Scotland,

Dear Katie—I am at a fine place now and I will send a picture postcard to show you what it is like pretty soon. It is sort of a private convalescent home, and it is a fine house situated in a large estate near the city of Aberdeen, Scotland. The owner, Mr. Leith-Hay, has no family

Mrs. Leith-Hay is away at present, and he has convalescent soldiers come here and stay for a few weeks.

The grub is fine and he does every thing and anything for our comfort and pleasure. There are eleven of us here at present but I am the only Canadian. I will likely be here about three weeks and then if I am fit I will go back to the base. I suppose

I cannot walk very far yet. It is my old right leg that bothers all the time, and I don't know whether it is rheumatism, or just the effects of the injury or what it is, but it is improving slowly alright. I have not received any mail since I left Etaples but I guess it will be coming along alright. We are right out in the country here so it will be pretty quiet, I suppose that is best so far convalescent soldiers. The railroad runs right through the estate, however, so of course it is a wilderness. Mr. Leith's family (he should say his ancestors) were all a great bunch of fighters. His father, grandfather, and great grandfather were in the Indian mutiny, in the Crimean war, in the Napoleonic wars, etc. He has one huge painting, about 20 feet high, showing the storming of San Sebastian in the Peninsula war, and he can show his ancestor in the attacking columns. Some of his ancestors also fought for Prince Charlie and he has a writing set, very small and very nice, presented by the Prince to his ancestor the night before Culloden. General Leith-Hay was in the battle of Waterloo and on account of some courtesy shown to a French Courtier was presented with the sash—very interesting, etc. He has also some splendid jewelry and gold trinkets which were taken from the Palace of the King and Queen of Oude in India. He has swords and lances and other equipment taken from officers of the Russian Army in the Crimea, also of course, the claymore of his father and grandfather, and their tarzan or whatever you call it.

There is some beautiful furniture too, with some great four-poster beds with covers over them. I don't know how thick the carpets are in some of the rooms, but they are certainly jake to walk on. Fine old paintings, and portraits hang on all the walls, not photographs, like we see in Canada, but portraits and paintings. One thing which bass look natural is a picture of the Thin Red

Line.

He supplies us with writing paper and would supply us with stamps too, if we would let him. Also he dresses the wounds of the boys himself. We have one boy with us about fourteen or fifteen (he is a bad boy or something like that) and Mr.

Leith-Hay takes a great interest in him. Unfortunately the three children

he has had have all died.

One of the boys here has no toes left. They have all been amputated due to frost bite at the Harlaes and I don't think his feet will ever be quite right again. There were thousands of others, the same way he said, only many had to have their feet amputated, and boy little we ever heard about it. He said they just clipped his toes off, after they had gone black, and he never felt them. I heard that the 32nd had left but I didn't know whether they were going straight across or not, perhaps you could enlighten me. I don't know whether our Battalion is at the front now, but I presume they are not. Chub hasn't told me but perhaps the censor will not let it pass.

I heard from one source that they were not going to allow any mail to come from the front for a while but I couldn't vouch for the truth of that. I am enclosing an orange blossom which I got at Etaples.

ART

"CANADIAN PATRIOTS"

Our gallant boys of Canada have answered to the call. The call to fight for justice which comes to us and all. They march away mid music and the cheering of the crowd. But many hearts are breaking and heads with grief are bowed.

And those who can't go with them are left to watch and pray. Can feel their hearts grow heavy, with the coming of today. They think of Him who knows their grief, of Him who dwells above, and earnestly they ask Him to guard all those they love.

And then they turn with hearts made light by hope and faith and trust.

To do the work awaiting them, as all true patriots must.

So some are left at home to work and some go off to fight. Yet all, Canadian Patriots are striving to do the right.

O, God, look down and guard us all and haste the dawn of peace, when all men live as brothers should and roar of cannon cease.

When men will learn to love the right and learn to love the wrong, Then will Thou dwell within our hearts and make our Empire strong.

July 6, 1916

The celebration advertised for the 27th to commemorate the opening of Benalto, the new town on the C.P.R. between Red Deer and Eckville, has been postponed till July 14th. The committee met at 10 o'clock on the 27th, and owing to the unfavorable condition of the weather called off the sports, but made a great mistake in trying to postpone the dance which was to take place in the evening in Mr. Silson's new store. The weather turning out fine during the latter part of the day a large company assembled "in the evening" thinking that the dance was on. There didn't seem to be any of the committee interested enough to come and tell the people what had been done and as the musicians also had arrived a messenger was sent to Evans in order to acquaint Mr. Simpson with the situation.

Mr. Simpson pluckily got up from a sick bed and, after sending back the messenger with instructions to go ahead with the dance, followed about an hour later with his full rig of good things to eat and drink. During proceedings with great gusto to the strains of one violin, the other instrumentalists having got tired of waiting and gone home.

An excellent supper was served at one o'clock, during which Mr. Isaacson, after expressing in glowing terms the courtesy which he had received in his dealings with Mr. Simpson, called on Mr. Simpson's late partner to congratulate their host on his new enterprise.

Mr. Simpson's late partner began by saying that his seventeen years' friendship with his host was full of pleasant memories, and referring to their partnership at Evans, who is in high praise of Mr. Simpson's business capabilities, and that he knew he voiced the sentiments of all present when he said that "Jack's" success was most deserved. Now, as one of his patrons, he asked Mr. Simpson to accept their gratitude for what he had done for them in the past and they looked forward with confidence to getting the same square deal in the future.

Three ringing cheers were then given for Ben Alto's Pioneer Store-keeper, and the 150 voices present sang "It's a Jolly Good Fellow" with great gusto.

Mr. Simpson then thanked the company for their kind sentiments and apologized for the confusion which had been made regarding the dance but he was glad those that had come were now having a good time. He hoped they would come again when the sports day came around and he would see that they had even a better time.

The dance continued until almost midnight and what at one time seemed to be a dismal failure turned out a huge success.

Sylvan Lake

The Camping season is now in full swing. Most of the cottages are occupied and the hotels are well patronized. Amongst the campers coming in this week we have noticed Rev. Dr. Huettner and family, E. M. Kane and family, Mrs. W. J. Butterfield, Mrs. J. Quigg, Mrs. G. W. Smith, Mrs. G. H. Lindsay, Mrs. W. W. Parks, Mrs. W. Hammond, Mrs. W. J. Stephenson, Mrs. E. G. A good programme has been arranged for the day with Red Deer hall holiday and a number of people coming from there, an enjoyable day is assured.

Special coaches will be arranged for on the C.P.R. that day to accommodate the people. The ladies of the district under the auspices of the Red Cross Society of Burnt Lake will have a booth on the grounds all day in aid of the Red Cross Fund.

Our old friend was on the warpath in school matters last Saturday evening, and it was quite noticeable by the way the fellow with the eyeglasses and sassy manner was dogging around that he was not anxious to meet Uncle Charlie.

Mr. H. H. Gaetz Appointed Professor of Pharmacy

Mr. H. H. Gaetz, head of the widely known Gaetz-Cornett Drug and Book Co., Red Deer, has been offered the position of Professor of Pharmacy in the University of Alberta and, after consultation with the full Executive of the Alberta Pharmaceutical Association, which met at Edmonton on Friday, has decided to accept the position. Mr. Gaetz has been a member of the Association for three years, and the members of the Executive decided to place enough Association money in the hands of Mr. Gaetz to make the pharmaceutical course at the University of Alberta the best on this Continent.

Dr. Lehman takes the University course in all his community professors botany, physics, etc., while Mr. Gaetz will have the practical subjects in the pharmaceutical course and will have charge of the pharmaceutical laboratory, which the Association propose to bring up to a level in equipment and service with the chemical physical and biological laboratories of the University. The affiliation of the Pharmaceutical courses with the University courses enables the Alberta druggists to put on a course of training in their department that will not be surpassed on the Continent.

Mr. Gaetz will not sever his associations with Red Deer for some time yet, but, while many friends and acquaintances will be glad of this new avenue of usefulness and service opening up before him in the congenial surroundings of the University in Red Deer, with whose life and activities he has been connected from his very beginning, the townsite taking in his and his father's half sections. In all his community work in Red Deer, from Mayor down, his character and service have endeavored to give the town a tone and outlook which has distinguished it in equipment and spirit from many another place with the same start. The best of good wishes will follow him in his new responsibilities.

Every Man admires a workmanlike job

And that is why any man who is thinking of installing a heating system should examine the Sunshine Furnace. It is a piece of work he will take to. There is a sound reason for this. Take the shape of the firepot as an example. The straight walls allow the ashes to fall instead of lodging against the sides where they would interfere with the free passage of heat from the burning coal. See the large, double, light-fitting doors. Notice how easily the dampers are controlled. Not much trouble to shut off the fire and hold the heat with this furnace. See how dust is directed up the chimney whenever the fire is shaken down. Note the large radiating surfaces and wide passages for heating the air. It was a man who knew his job that designed
